2006

Dear Mr President,

I like to express my great concern for the safety of the remaining 28 detainees and those who are facing charges in connection with the protests and further clashes with the police that took place in San Salvador Atenco on 4 May 2006.

- I call on you to ensure that the authorities guarantee the safety of the remaining 28 detainees and those who are facing charges.
- I urge you to ensure that any judicial proceeding against those in detention meets international fair trial standards.
- I call on you to ensure that immediately an impartial and exhaustive criminal investigation into allegations of sexual abuses and other ill-treatment against women detained by state and federal police will start and that the findings will be made public and those responsible will brought to justice.
- I call on you to ensure that a thorough and impartial investigation into the allegations of excessive use of force, arbitrary detentions, ill-treatment and violations of due process to the detainees will be carried out and that the findings will be made public and those responsible will brought to justice.
- I call on you to ensure that a full and transparent investigation into the conduct of the police operations will be carried out and that all those responsible, including senior officials, for violations will be held to account.

Yours sincerely,
